

Thank You

Dear Moriah Foundation family,

On behalf of The Moriah Foundation Board of Directors and team, we are pleased to share with you The Moriah Foundation 2021 Bursary Program Outcomes Report.

We are truly grateful for your meaningful generosity, helping children whose families are in financial need to receive a Moriah education and all that comes with Moriah life.

In 2021, with your support, and that of our other donors, 54 children enrolled were supported by a Moriah Foundation Bursary. A number of new bursaries were established to recognise donors who contributed significantly to our No Family Left Behind Campaign to assist our families who were financially impacted by the pandemic.

We hope you enjoy reading about the transformative changes that you, together with all our donors, have made possible for these fortunate children through your contribution to our Bursary Program.

In the words of one of our bursary parents who shared their reflections with us, "I just don't know what to say, I am so indebted to you and the kindness and generosity of the Moriah donors. I struggle to put into words how grateful I am."

Thank you for your incredible support, enabling children who otherwise would not have the opportunity, to join our Moriah family and receive the priceless gift of a Jewish education.

With best wishes,

Judy Lowy
Foundation President

Ryan Kassel
Foundation Director

Making an impact

Every year, the demand for bursaries in our community increases as more families, desperate for their children to receive a Moriah education, reach out for our help.

With your incredible support, in 2021 an extraordinary 54 children enrolled were supported with Moriah Foundation Bursaries.

It is truly inspirational to see the difference our donors such as yourselves are making, offering our bursary families access to an exceptional education, equipping them with Jewish knowledge and values, pride in their Jewish identity, and a deep sense of belonging.

As The Moriah Foundation enters into our second decade, and with your transformative support, we remain focused on assisting as many children as possible to access a Moriah education, and supporting Moriah College to remain a leading school of choice, delivering exceptional education and opportunities to all our students.

Many parents want to enrol their children in Moriah, but without the provision of a bursary, their financial circumstances make it impossible for them to do so.

The Moriah Foundation Bursary Program enables more Jewish children to receive a Jewish education by providing fee discounts ranging from 50% to 100% depending on family circumstances. Bursaries are generally awarded for the duration of Primary or High School, or for the child's entire schooling from Year K until the completion of Year 12.

All applicants are required to complete a detailed and comprehensive means tested and equity-based assessment of the family's financial situation, as well as demonstrate their commitment to Jewish education. Bursaries are not awarded on the basis of academic criteria. The utmost care is taken to ensure the process is confidential and dignified, yet robust and fair.

Recipients do not generally need to reapply each year, unless their financial circumstances change.

This rigorous and equitable process ensures that bursaries are allocated to families who are in the greatest financial need, and who will value the opportunity to receive the exceptional education provided by Moriah.

We are grateful to you and our other bursary donors who have enabled tens of children a year to receive the life-changing gift of a Moriah education and all its offerings, a gift that can change the entire trajectory of a child's life.

Parent reflections

We hope you will enjoy reading the heartfelt feedback received from one of our bursary recipients, providing you with a real sense of impact you have had on their children and their families.

Thank You

“ To the Foundation donors; the people who have sacrificed for my daughter to have a Jewish education at Moriah College.

Your generosity, your kindness and total selflessness is received with gratitude beyond words.

I recently asked my daughter what she loves most about Moriah since starting.

“Everything,” she said. I wanted specifics.

No, I said to her. Tell me what it is you like about your new school. I probed her for a while.

Is it the children?

The teachers?

The classrooms?

Her answer remained the same, “Everything.”

It was at that point that I realised it wasn't a particular 'thing' that she loved most. It was its ambiance and this is something that cannot be put into words. She knows it's 'different'. It's 'rare'.

From the bottom of our hearts, we want to say thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Thank you for doing something so kind, that comes without personal acknowledgment from us to you. This is the most selfless act of giving and I am so humbled by it.

My daughter is making the most of every opportunity and we promise to give back to the school in our own way.

Thank you,
