Your life-changing gift of a Moriah education

Many people don't realise that gifts in Wills play an important role in securing Moriah's future.

Jewish education is the very foundation of a flourishing Jewish life, and while many families desperately want to provide their children with a Jewish education, they simply cannot afford to do so.

By leaving a gift in your Will to Moriah, no matter the size, you can feel secure in the knowledge that you will be providing our children, the future of our community, with the immeasurable gift of a Jewish education.

By making the important decision to remember Moriah in your Will, you will enable more Jewish children to:

- Receive an exceptional modern orthodox and general education
- Learn about their Judaism
- Feel a deep Zionist connection
- Be nurtured and inspired
- Create lifelong friendships
- Be immersed in Jewish values and traditions
- Understand they are the next precious link in the chain of Jewish continuity

It is your eternal legacy that reflects your values and will endure from generation to generation.

“ Leaving a gift in my Will to Moriah is one of the most significant and meaningful ways to impact the lives of Jewish children beyond my lifetime, helping to ensure future generations develop a strong sense of Jewish identity and deep love of Israel. ”

- Danny Taibel

Why consider leaving a gift in your Will to Moriah?

Your gift will help more Jewish children from families facing financial hardship to access an outstanding Moriah education and strengthen our entire community.

Legacy giving is one of the most impactful ways to imbue your life with meaning and satisfaction, l'dor v'dor - from generation to generation.

What kind of gift should I consider and will it make a difference?

After caring for your loved ones, leaving even a small percentage of your estate to Moriah will make a profound difference – a gift that will transform the lives of more Jewish children and help secure the sustainability of our Jewish community. Legacy gifts can take many forms: a percentage of your estate, a fixed dollar amount or a specific asset or item.

Can I specify where my gift will go?

By leaving a general-purpose gift to Moriah, we will allocate your gift to meet our children's greatest needs.

If you prefer to allocate your gift to a specific purpose, such as our transformative Bursary Program, our Moriah Endowment Fund, capital projects, or one of our signature programs, we will ensure that your wishes are honoured.
